

SPRING OPENING

Saturday and Monday, April 5th and 7th

An Exposition and Complete Display of Spring and Summer Merchandise

We are especially anxious that every lady in or around Barre should see and inspect the many new things we have to offer, and thus to realize the amazing advantage in style, assortment and value to be gained by trading here.

New Dress Goods New Spring Silks

Our display this season is the largest we have ever shown. You can find nearly all shades and kinds to select from, including Serges, Wide Wales, Whip Cords, Eponge, Broadcloths, also a good line of Novelty Mixtures for separate coats or skirts.

We call your attention to our display of White Wool Goods, which are so popular.

Dress Goods from 25c. to $3.50 per yard.

Our line is attracting the eye of the thrifty shopper. We can give you exceptional value for the money, and we ask you to look over our line of Bulgarian, Messalines, Crepe Melrose, Silk Poplins, Taffetas, Pongees and Oymah Silk.

Prices from 25c up to $2.00 per yard.

When you are in need of a Silk Dress, try our 35-inch Messaline, in all colors, at only $1.00 per yard.

"Haskells Silks are sure to please."

Beautiful New Wash Goods

Every new and wanted Wash Fabric is now here. Instead of you having trouble to find what you want, the chances are that you will find more pleasing patterns and designs here than you want to buy. We delight in showing them. The values are unusually good. Prices from 15c to 75c per yard.

We call your special attention to our Silk Stripe Voile at 50c per yard.

Send for samples of our spring goods. We pay the parcel post.

All That Is Newest and Best in Stylish Apparel for Ladies

We invite everybody to call and see the new spring styles, if for no other reason than to learn "what's what."

Everything New, SUITS, COATS, SKIRTS, WAISTS AND DRESSES. Prices Attractive

New Bulgarian Hamburgs

We have just received to-day by express from one of the largest Embroidery houses of New York, a display of newest Bulgarian Hamburg Flouncings and bands to match, also a handsome line of Embroidered Voiles in White and Colors. These will be on display for our opening and we call your attention to our window display. Be sure and see these at our opening.

Style Store for Women

The Homer Fitts Co.

THE STORE THAT HAS THE SPRING OPENING NOW

Come and Look

The Clothes Question ?

isn't a question when they're "Peck Clothes."

Years of careful study and experience have put "Peck Clothes" where they are to-day.

See these togs before choosing your spring suit.

Don't waste time running around. Come here, and get the right clothes at the right prices.

$10, $15, to $22

F. E. Cutts Co.

TALK OF THE TOWN

Caramel ice cream at Kendrick's for Saturday.

Miss Elva Moorhouse of Greenfield, Mass., arrived in the city last evening to spend several days with relatives.

Miss Florence Granger of Park street went yesterday to Randolph, where she will visit her grandparents for a few days.

Barre Club Notes.

The board of directors of the Barre Woman's club will meet at the library Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

TALK OF THE TOWN

Wilfred Pareau returned this morning to his home near Iversville, P. Q., after spending ten days with relatives in Barre Town.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Rockwood, who have been spending a few days at the home of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. N. M. Nelson, of Merchant street, returned this morning to Waterbury.

Mrs. B. Colombo of 38 Center street was brought to the City hospital last evening and this forenoon she submitted to an operation for appendicitis. Her condition was reported to be comfortable after the operation.

TALK OF THE TOWN

New lot of crash 10c a yard at Perry's on Saturday.

New white waists by express today. Paris Shirtwaist House.

Tickets for "The Country Boy" go on sale at Kendrick's to-night.

Alex. Fowle of 47 Ayers street left this morning for Burlington, where he expects to pass the next two months.

Mrs. James Bennett of Pearl street returned yesterday afternoon from Hardwick, where she has been visiting at the home of her parents.

Men's supper Tuesday evening at Congregational church, 6 to 8. No soliciting, simply a 35c supper for your 35c. Table de hôte, all you want for one price.

Charles Hutchinson, who has been passing a few days in the city, left last night for Enfield, N. H., for a few days' visit before returning to his home at Revue, Mass.

Mrs. George L. Morris and two children of Tremont street went this morning to Waterbury, where they will visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles D. Swasey for a few days.

Mrs. J. W. Kidder, who has been passing three weeks in the city as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Taft of Merchant street, and with other relatives, left this morning for her home in Port Chester, N. Y.

Miss Florence Wattles of Indianapolis, Ind., who spoke in the Howland hall Wednesday evening, arrived in the city this morning from Concord, N. H., where she gave an address last night. To-night Miss Wattles is engaged to deliver her lecture in Barre Town.

The infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Sullivan of 121 Prospect street died last night after a short illness. The child was only three days old. Funeral services were held this afternoon at 2 o'clock and the remains were interred in the Catholic cemetery on Beckley street.

A. Hodgkinson of Burlington, general manager and organizer of the state branches of the Prudential Life Insurance company, was in the city to-day, holding a conference with the insurance underwriters of the local branch, which covers the territory of Barre and Montpelier.

TALK OF THE TOWN

W. F. Wilson arrived in the city today from New York, where he landed a few days ago from Glasgow, Scotland.

Miss Margaret Daly of Burlington arrived in the city this forenoon for a ten days' visit with relatives on Central street.

Bring your Panama hats to the Frank McWhorter Co. to be cleaned and re-blocked; we shall send them in a few days.

Miss Bernice Prindle of Keith avenue left to-day for Littleton, N. H., where she will make an indefinite visit with relatives.

The members of St. Johnsbury court, No. 522, C. O. F., are requested to meet at K. of C. hall on Sunday morning at 8:30 o'clock for the purpose of attending holy communion in a body.

Arthur Beattie of James street, who recently returned to this city from New York, where he had been employed for a year, has secured a position in the dry goods store of L. J. Morton in St. Albans, having already assumed his duties.

Alex. A. Simpson, who has been spending the winter at his former home in Aberdeen, Scotland, arrived in the city this forenoon from New York, where he landed yesterday from the Anchor liner, Camerania, which sailed from Liverpool March 29.

Mr. and Mrs. William Pirie of South Main street left last night for New York, where they will meet Miss Kathleen Stewart, who is on her way from Aberdeen, Scotland, to this country. The party will return to Barre the first of next week.

Mr. and Mrs. William Oliver and son, Perry, arrived in the city today from Quincy, Mass., where they have been visiting for the past week. Mr. and Mrs. Oliver left the city last fall for Westbury, R. I., where they have been residing since.

At a recent meeting of the Shamrock A. A. Thomas Carroll was chosen to act as manager of the baseball nine that will represent the association this spring. All those desirous of securing scheduled games with the Shamrocks should communicate with the manager.

The executive committee of the Barre Athletic club is completing arrangements for the dance to be held in the Howland hall next Thursday night, April 10. The funds accruing from the affair are to be devoted to the maintenance of the baseball club during the coming season. Riley's orchestra has been engaged to furnish music for the dance.

The Perry Automobile Co., unloaded a car of Ford automobiles in the Central Vermont freight yards yesterday afternoon. The consignment consisted of touring cars and roadsters, making a total of forty-eight 1913 models which the Perry Co. has received since the purchasing season opened. With two or three exceptions, every car has been placed.

Emerson, when he intimated that the seller of the best "mouse trap" or "what not" was going to get the business, was correct. The same principle applies to the Bijou theatre and today you do not find any tall timber around that popular theatre, but a well defined and beaten path leads to the entrance from every direction. The feature today is a Bijou 101, "The Temptation."—Adv.

Mrs. George Karkanes of Montpelier, who was a resident of this city for some years, during which period her husband was a part owner of the United Fruit store, is seriously ill with pneumonia. A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Karkanes Tuesday and since then her condition has been considered critical. The child is doing well. Rev. George Popareanes, pastor of a Greek Catholic church in Lowell, Mass., arrived in Montpelier last evening, having been called by his former parishioner's illness. Mrs. Karkanes' condition was reported to be improved slightly this forenoon and hopes were held out for her recovery. Rev. Mr. Popareanes will visit friends in Barre before returning to Lowell.

TALK OF THE TOWN

Rain coats, umbrellas at Knight's. Sale of matted bags Saturday at Abbott's.

Caramel ice cream at Kendrick's for Saturday.

See our new middy blouse—latest fad. Paris Shirtwaist House.

F. A. Allan arrived in the city yesterday from Perry, N. Y., for a few days' visit.

Harry Brusa of Northfield, a member of the granite manufacturing firm of Brusa & Co., arrived in the city last evening for a few days' business visit.

Theodore Crandall, who attends Dartmouth college, was a visitor in the city yesterday on his way to Berlin to pass the annual spring vacation at his home.

Clifford Peake of Elm street returned today from Essex Junction, where he has been in charge of a barber shop during the past few days, the proprietor being called to Montreal by the death of a relative.

Embroidery Headquarters!

TWENTY-NINE CENT SALE OF TWENTY-SEVEN-INCH FLOUNCINGS

Get your choice of this lot now. Previous lots have gone quickly, which is good evidence of their value.

On display in our show window for Saturday selling at 29c a yard.

HENRY W. KNIGHT, BARRE, VT.

Successor to Veale & Knight.

Those New Spring Styles

we are showing from

The House of Kuppenheimer

are causing a deal of favorable discussion among the discriminating dressers in town.

By the way—have you seen them yet? If not, we certainly want you to visit our Style Show and see what fashion has stamped with approval for spring and summer wear.

$18.00 $25.00

Other Makes $10.00 to $22.00

Union Clothing Company

Copyright 1913 The House of Kuppenheimer

TALK OF THE TOWN

1st Biscuit day at the Bijou today.

Special sale on white muslin waists Saturday. Paris Shirtwaist House.

Street Superintendent J. C. DeBorne returned today from a short business trip to St. Johnsbury.

Mrs. Roy Bugbee of Washington street went yesterday to Williamstown for a few days' visit with relatives.

Gerald Brock of Washington street returned today from Newbury, where he has been passing a week with relatives.

Homer Fitts entertained the clerks of the Homer Fitts store at a theatre party in the opera house last evening, the occasion being the presentation of "Olli-er 666."

LAMSON AND HUBBARD HATS Best in America For sale by

The FRANK MCWHORTER CO.

Our Spring Creations

in Women's Oxfords, Pumps and Slippers form a great attraction for women these days.

You should look in our front window and see what we can produce for so small a price.

New models in Oxfords and Pumps and dainty Footwear of all kinds.

New leathers—Tan, Chocolate, Gun Metal and Patents. Let us show you.

"Clarice," $3.00 and $3.50.

"Doris," $2.00.

"Bernada," $1.50.

The Peoples Shoe Store

C. S. Andrews, Prop., Barre, Vermont.

Best Display in the City of the Latest Spring Styles in Hats

The prices will suit you and we have a large assortment to select from.

Call and see them, even if you don't intend to purchase.

Mrs. W. F. Shepard Howland Block, Barre

Jaunty Spring Hats

that express the keynote of fashion in all details—yet so moderately priced that you wonder how it is possible. You will find just the one you want among our large display.

The Emporium Hat Shop

200 1/2 North Main Street

Barre, Vermont

Base Ball Gloves and Mitts

We have for a few days' sale a salesman's sample line—50 different kinds. We offer them at cost prices, varying from 20c to $4.95. This is an exceptional opportunity for boys, amateurs and professionals.

SEE WINDOW

C. W. AVERILL & CO.

51-53 North Main St.

Tel 439-W

Barre, Vt.

Unquestionably, the New Spring Clothes at this Store are the Best Values of the Season

This is a little thing to remember and a great thing to realize. Surely you are interested in that quality which gives you the greatest all-around satisfaction in style and service.

At $10, $12, $15, to $25, our new Spring Suits are unsurpassed for value.

Shuman & Adler-Rochester Suits, Top Coats and Raincoats

Serges, Cheviots, Worsteds, Cassimeres and Tweeds in Plain and Novelty Weaves—tailored in conservative and ultra models. Don't forget, this store for the best values of the season.

The Frank McWhorter Co.

